

DIGITAL INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS 2022

International scientific and practical conference

HYBRID FORMAT

Face-to-face meetings with the possibility of remote connection.

ADVANCED TRAINING

Advanced training in digital issues for all participants with the issuance of a MGIMO University Certificate of established form.

SCOPUS / WEB OF SCIENCE PUBLICATION

Publication of conference proceedings in a peer-reviewed book with indexing in international databases (Scopus and Web of Science).

APRIL 14-15, 2022

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The purpose of the Conference is to organize a constructive discussion and creative reflection on the best global practices of digital transformation in the fields of international relations, management, economics and education, as well as to ensure the elaborating of new solutions for the digital development of the Russian Federation.

ORGANIZERS

MGIMO University

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation

ISP RAS

Ivannikov Institute for System
Programming of the RAS

THE TERMS OF PARTICIPATION

The accommodation, travel and visa support costs of the participants from the foreign countries may be covered by the Organizing Committee*.

* – Places are limited. Applications are considered by the Organizing Committee.

CONTACTS

The Conference will be held at:

76, Prospect Vernadskogo
Moscow, Russia, 119454

Web-site:

<https://digital2022.mgimo.ru/>

Phone:

+7 (495) 229-54-39

E-mail:

digital2022@inno.mgimo.ru

Goals:

- Assess the impact of digital transformation processes on various aspects of international relations and the diplomatic service;
- Explore the potential of using data analysis systems and artificial intelligence in the field of international relations;
- Analyze current trends in the field of international information security;
- Assess the digital transformation of the global economy;
- Organize a discussion of leading domestic and foreign practitioners in the field of organizational and management processes' digitalization at the enterprise and industry levels;
- Ensure the exchange of best practices in the field of higher education digitalization;
- Present MGIMO University's new educational programs and products implemented as part of consortiums under the Priority 2030 program.

